In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.
